

Accomplished Today:

- Dress Rehearsal (Ran through show with costumes, lights, and sound)

Artist Attendance/Conflicts etc.:

- Gretchen (Spot Op) had a family emergency
- Tyler called in a sub to work Gretchen's spotlight

Rehearsal Breakdown:

7:00 – 7:30	Cast into Costumes & Mics
7:40 – 8:35	Ran Act One
8:35 – 8:51	Break
8:51 – 9:28	Ran Act Two
9:42 – 10:15	Notes
10:15	Dismissed

GENERAL NOTES:

- A successful dress rehearsal! Cast continues to struggle with lines/lyrics, but all technical elements are coming together tighter and tighter each run. Thanks to everyone for your hard work!
- TIMINGS: Act One is 55 minutes; Act Two is 36 minutes.

DEPARTMENT NOTES:

Scenery:

1. Thank you for the masking and new scenery! Everything looks awesome!
2. See Lighting Notes below.

Props:

1. Thank you for the oatmeal, radio, and other fixings/new items!

Costumes / Wigs & Makeup:

1. Some of the habits need to be pressed. (It is obvious that you have already started this; I am only including this note as a reminder because of all the hard work you do!)

Lighting, Special Effects:

1. Thank you for the "On Air" sign! Looks cool!
2. Can we get some running lights in the tunnel House Right/Stage Left? Brianna has tripped consistently when she has to run in there after the Mouse King/Nutcracker duel.

Music / Sound:

1. Thank you for the monitor Stage Left! They made their entrances tonight!
2. Thank you for the telephone!

Choreography:

1. No notes today.

Miscellaneous:

1. No notes today.

Quote of the Day:

- Susan (to Daniel): "You can take care of my organs!"

Thank you!

Mike Redondo

Stage Manager

951-313-2562

mike.redondo.131@gmail.com